

Announcing the Lucy Marx Scholarship

- Purpose: To encourage and support persons from KASL's Jefferson County District who wish to become certified as School Library Media Specialists
- Eligibility:
1. Applicants must be residents or work in Jefferson County, Kentucky.
 2. Applicants must be full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate students who are currently enrolled in or have been accepted into a state accredited program leading to certification as a school media librarian.
 3. Those who receive a scholarship cannot accept the same scholarship offered by another KASL District.
 4. Those who have received the scholarship are not eligible to reapply.
- (Revised Form – 3/17/10)

Amount: $600.00 scholarship / academic year

Deadline: Forward a copy of this application form and other required documents no later than June 1, 2016 to:
Janet Lanham
Library Media Services Dept. 003x
CB Young Service Center, Bldg. 6
3001 Crittenden Drive
Louisville, Ky. 40209
janet.lanham@jefferson.kyschools.us

Application

Name _____

Permanent Address _____

Telephone Number _____

Please include the following on attached pages:

1. A discussion of your reasons for wanting to become a school media librarian. Your discussion should not exceed one page typewritten, double-spaced.
2. A brief statement of how you will benefit from the scholarship award. Include any circumstances of which the Scholarship Committee should be apprised concerning your financial situation, including any type of financial aid that you will be receiving during the academic year.
3. Two letters of recommendations to support your application.
4. Confirmation of your enrollment in or acceptance into an accredited program leading to certification as a school media librarian (i.e. copy of your written acceptance into a certification program, written confirmation on letterhead from the college or university).

Applicant's Signature _____ Date _____

Please share this application with other interested applicants.